

Greater Huddersfield Clinical Commissioning Group (GHCCG) A partnership of approx 40 GP practices delegated to commission and improve health services within Kirklees. Their website has many useful areas of information and connections to other health related groups.

www.greaterhuddersfieldccg.nhs.uk

HealthWatch Kirklees a Nationwide organisation with local teams to inform and help users of health and social care to have their voice heard.

www.healthwatchkirklees.co.uk

The Kings Fund is an independent charitable organisation working to improve health care by research, policy publications etc. They have very useful information in regards to what clinical commissioning is.

www.kingsfund.org.uk

National voices an organisation which keeps you informed of health and disability related issues.

www.nationalvoices.org.uk

NHS England a website for all information regarding NHS issues including the NHS Constitution and Call to Action.

www.england.nhs.uk

The greater Huddersfield Clinical Commissioning Group has just issued their proposals for the coming five years in a document called "Right Care Right Time Right Place". This can be found at www.rightcaredtimeplace.co.uk

National Institute of Clinical Excellence NICE have guidelines for the care pathways, medication etc of many health conditions .

www.nice.org.uk

Care Quality Commission – CQC

This is a statutory body who have a duty to regulate and inspect all areas of health and social care.

www.cqc.org.uk

Kirklees Council has various websites which give further information including :

www.kirklees.gov.uk/Involve previously known as Follow Me. Self-care help for people with long-term conditions.

www.kirklees.gov.uk/healthtrainers for help in coping with a long-term condition

www.kirklees.gov.uk/carenavigation for support in working through care and support plans